Letter from the Vicar

Finding a relevant name for a venture or activity that is meaningful and descriptive can be a difficult task. Thinking of something for our next programme of fundraising at St Thomas church that combines the needs for building and people was hard at first. Our tasks are: to replace and upgrade St Thomas' church heating with a system that is efficient and is effective for many years future use, to upgrade our PA system and install fixed projection, to employ a part time youth worker.

Many people today understand the church as a building. According to the Bible, the church is not a building or a denomination, the church is the body of Christ—all those who have placed their faith in Jesus. Local churches are gatherings of members of the universal church.

Each local church worships in a building of some sort, and in each generation we are called to maintain and enhance our worship place to be fit for not just our present needs but for future worship and Christians to come – our children and theirs.

If we think about our children, our grandchildren and beyond, they are the future. We are blessed with many children and young people in St Thomas' and St Luke's churches, but we only need to look at the average age in church to see that they have to be a key focus for the future. The future of the church is our young people. Our youth worker will help to nurture them in the love of Jesus, so that they may become the future church.

If we think about our church building then we want it to be fit and ready for our future generations to use and to enjoy for their worship. Our heating system enhancement and audio visual project will help to provide traditional and contemporary worship in a flexible, comfortable environment. We will be able to extend our welcome and include more older, housebound or disabled people.

‘Fit for the Future’ is the name that we have come up for the programme.

If you would like to know more, or find out how you can contribute to our fundraising then please contact us for more information.

THE ARTIST

I love the way you paint the sky
With autumn's brilliant blues,
And winter's powder grey.
I love the way you pour the ocean out,
and send it shouting to the shore.
I see here how nature's life expresses you.
The rain the storms,
The relentless burning sun.
You must laugh at our God-denial.
We think we're so together, so advanced.
Inventions, conventions, so evolved,
Man on the moon.

But who sets this barren orb into a midnight sky
 And keeps it there?
 Who summons the dawn without fail,
 And gathers up the whispering wind,
 That strips the trees of leaves?
 Gives us eyes that see,
 And hearts that are an echo of your own.
 That in those dull and shaky moments,
 With vision cleared we will read the natural
 signs of you,
 God... our mighty creator.
Tricia Richards

Love and prayers
Barbara

Bishop Paul to be installed on November 15th

We're delighted to announce that the Rt Revd Paul Bayes will be installed as Bishop of Liverpool in a special service at Liverpool Cathedral at 3pm on November 15th.

Bishop Paul said "This date seems a very long way away! But there are a number of legal and other steps to be taken before I can begin my public ministry among you all. I'm delighted that we have a firm date in the diary and grateful to the legal officers of the Church, and to the Dean and Chapter, for putting all the various processes in place. I can now look forward to moving to the Diocese and getting to meet as many of you as possible".

FUTURE OF YOUR PARISH MAGAZINE

The Sign

As part of a process of reviewing how we distribute the church magazine and what is included, we are reviewing the demand for "The Sign" (the insert which is included within each printed magazine).

If you read any sections of "The Sign" and would like us to continue to provide it, then please email our editor at: stthomasandstlukesmagazine@gmail.com to indicate your interest. If there is little or no interest then we are likely to discontinue including "The Sign" as part of our magazine.

Electronic Copies of the Church Magazine

We can now send you a copy of this magazine at no cost, as an email. Anyone who already receives copies of our weekly church notices will automatically receive this magazine. If you do not receive the magazine electronically and would like to sign up then please go to this web page: <http://www.stthomasstluke.org.uk/subscribenoticesheet/> and enter your details. You can also get to this page from our home page: <http://www.stthomasstluke.org.uk/> and then go to the link at the bottom right hand corner of the home page.

If you no longer require a printed version of the magazine then please email Jack Stuart: jack.stuart1@btinternet.com and we will cease to provide it, once your current "contract" ends.

Messy Church celebrates 10th anniversary

Messy Church is ten years old. What began in April 2004, in Cowplain near Portsmouth, as one congregation, has since been joined by 2342 others worldwide.

This fresh expression of church life builds upon Christ-centred elements of welcome, creativity, sharing food and celebration. Most Messy Churches meet monthly, at a time that suits the community. They seek to share Christ with families for whom traditional or inherited forms of church life feel alien to their experiences.

Key moments from ten years of Messy Church include: being featured on BBC's 'Songs of Praise'; St Paul's Cathedral in London hosting a Messy Church celebration; Spring Harvest becoming a popular place to dip into Messy Church seminars; Messy Nativity sheep trails popping up in shopping centres around the country each Christmas; and attention from the national press ('Messy Church crafts colourful alternative Sundays'—The Times)

Lucy Moore, the founder, says: 'As I look at the shouting, laughing, praying, awestruck, grateful, life-giving, weeping, eating, loving Messy multitudes gathered in churches around the world, it feels incredibly humbling'.

Messy Church is a core ministry of Bible Reading Fellowship.

Dioceses vote in favour of women bishops

The Church of England's dioceses have now all voted in favour of the current draft legislation to enable women to be bishops. In 2011 both London and Chichester diocesan synods voted against the legislation. The February 2014 meeting of General Synod referred the current Women in the Episcopate legislation to the dioceses.

Diocesan Synods all voted in favour of the motion: 'That this Synod approve the proposals embodied in the draft Bishops and Priests (Consecration and Ordination of Women) Measure and draft Amending Canon No 33.' For the motion to be carried the houses of clergy and laity had to each vote, by a simple majority, in favour. The draft legislation will now go before General Synod in July for a Final Approval vote.

The Bishop of Rochester, James Langstaff, Chair of the Steering Committee for the Draft Legislation for Women in the Episcopate said: "The dioceses have now expressed their view very clearly and the matter now comes back to General Synod in July. I pray that the Synod will continue to approach this decision in a prayerful and generous way as we move towards voting on the proposal that women may be bishops in the Church of England."

The Film Review

With Rob Carson

X-Men: Days of Future Past (12A) Directed by Bryan Singer

Stars: Hugh Jackman, James McAvoy, Patrick Stewart, Michael Fassbender, Ian McKellen, Jennifer Lawrence, Peter Dinklage, Halle Berry, Nicholas Hoult, Ellen Page, and Shawn Ashmore

In a Nutshell: Avengers having cornered the market in teaming up multiple superheroes, the X-Men franchise is trying something similar as the heroes of the modern X-Men movies as well as the younger incarnations from the terrific First Class. The result is nothing less than marvellous. In the canon, I'll say straight off... it's behind X2 and First Class for me but this is a tremendous piece of superhero blockbuster entertainment with smarts as well as the thrills. Cast wise, Jackman is tremendous as ever as Wolverine with the usual solid support from Stewart and McKellen whilst X-Vets like Page, Hoult and Ashmore are suitably enjoyable, it's in the new blood triple threat of McAvoy, Fassbender and Lawrence who completely steal it with fantastic performances, especially James and Michael as young Xavier and Magneto respectively. The effects as always are fabulous, and the time travel stuff is crazy but works.... it's the drama of the past and future colliding that really makes this a treat for fans and non-fans alike, well that and the plentiful chuckles you can expect too. It's one of those movies that doesn't need selling by my review, you know you want to see it... so go and do it! This is one franchise that will keep on going, hence the after credits bit you need to watch for.... Rating: 9/10

Godzilla (12A) Directed by Gareth Edwards

Stars: Bryan Cranston, Aaron Johnson, Ken Watanabe, Juliette Binoche, Elisabeth Olsen, Sally Hawkins, David Straithairn, and Richard.T.Jones

In a Nutshell: Cast your mind back to 1998, the hype and excitement for a new Godzilla movie from the director of Independence Day, what could go wrong? As much as I really enjoy that movie for it's big action and tons of cheesy dialogue and characters.... I'm willing to accept why people didn't rate it either as a film itself or especially as part of the Godzilla canon, it was simply a big ol' Jurassic Park rip off. He was basically a massive dinosaur. Rest assured then, that in this new incarnation, he IS Godzilla, plain and simple. All the tropes and attributes you remember and want from the character, including the fire breath.... and when he appears properly during the second half of this movie, it's amongst the most awesome action set pieces you'll see all year, as he appears from the sea and wreaks havoc and fights other monsters.... a slight shame then but also something fascinating, that a good deal of the rest of the movie deals with the human characters and very real human drama. Director Gareth Edwards has assembled a perfect cast who are all terrific, and the mixture of this drama and the action is sublime.... but there is a feeling of hoping for just that bit more of the action and less talking at times. This is to be expected though from the guy who brought us the terrific Monsters, and it's fine in the end.... it's not a perfect film but it manages the mix of the two better than Man of Steel did and when it's great, it's unbeatable! Godzilla is back and he's going to breath his fiery breath on the world..... Rating: 8/10

The Film Review

With Rob Carson

St THOMAS

Thomas was one of the 12 disciples and one thing we know about his family is he had a twin because he was called 'Didymus' which means a twin.

Thomas was ready to die with Jesus (John 11:16) but it is as 'Doubting Thomas' that most people remember him. Thomas wasn't afraid to ask the questions that the other disciples were thinking.

Thomas wasn't with the other disciples when they first saw the risen Christ. He refused to believe that Jesus had returned from the dead 'unless I see... and touch... I will not believe', but when he saw and touched Jesus he exclaimed 'My Lord and my God'. You can read this in St John's Gospel, chapter 20.

Without Thomas' doubts perhaps we wouldn't be as sure about our faith today. We need someone to ask the questions that we are too afraid to ask for fear of seeming silly or foolish.

T-TIME PUZZLE?

All the answers to this Bible puzzle begin with the letter T – can you find them all? The first one is too easy.

1. The disciple called Didymus.
2. The town named after a Roman Emperor (John, chapter 6).
3. Roman to whom Luke addressed his Gospel.
4. Where St Paul was born (Acts, chapter 9).
5. Paul's companion on the journey to Jerusalem (Galatians, chapter 2).
6. She came from Joppa and was also known as Dorcas (Acts, chapter 8).
7. Deborah sat underneath one (Judges, chapter 4).

Are there any tiles that won't stick on the wall? Reptiles.

Tell a man that there are 400 billion stars and he'll believe you.
Tell him a bench has wet paint and he has to touch it.

THE FALL OF JERICO

Then the Lord said to Joshua

"See I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men. March around the city once with all the armed men, do this for six days. On the seventh day march around seven times and when the trumpets blast the city will collapse"

And Joshua did what the Lord had commanded.
